Public forum guide

1. Choose a neutral venue (library, community room).
2. Post the date, time, access information and that it is non-partisan.
3. Provide the fact sheet and the Numbers hub on paper.
4. Use written questions from the audience so everyone can ask.
5. Have a note-taker; publish notes with sources.

Accessibility

- Step-free entrance
- Large-print copies
- Captioning or a written summary
- Interpreter on request